

Turks Win Battle of Kosovo

A milestone in the advance of the Ottoman Turks from their base in north east Anatolia was reached at Kosovo Field in Serbia. There in 1389, Sultan MURAD I defeated a force of Serians, Bulgarians, Bosnians and Montenegrins and so broke the power of Serbia & Bulgaria. The Ottoman Turks benefiting from the Civil wars that rocked the Byzantine empire in the mid 14th century, had already taken NICAEA & NICOMEDIA in 1435.

in 1354 they captured Gallipoli; the conquest of Thessaloniki followed

1389

Hapsburgs recognises Swiss independence
Turks defeat Slovans at ~~Kossovo~~
Kossovo, BAJAZET I accession

Boniface IV Roman Pope

1389

Eastern Empire

BAJAZET is sultan of the Turks

1389-1403

1912 Dates' J-BK

The East
BAJAZET I, son of MURAD I.

1389-1404

204th Pope Boniface IX
Naples, Italy. Legitimate successor of Urban VI.

1389

Germany & Austria

Massacre of Prague Community

1389

Swiss force the HABSBURGS to make a Truce.